Sri Lanka, Oct. 22 -- The Colombo High Court today ordered prisons officials to produce Nissanka Senadhipathi who is in remand custody before the court on the 14th of this month.

The case against the former Chairman of the Rakna Lanka Security Company, Major General Palitha Fernando and the Chairman of Avant-Garde Nissanka Senadhipathi for soliciting and offering a bribe of 35.5 million was taken up before Colombo High Court Judge Shashi Mahendran today.

Our court correspondent stated that Nissanka Senadhipathi who is the second accused in the case did not appear in court. Attorney-at-Law Gamini Marapana, appearing on behalf of him, informed the court that his client had been remanded for another case. Therefore, the case will be taken up again on the 14th of this month and the judge informed that the trial dates would be set on that date. The Magistrate also ordered the Superintendent of Prisons to take steps to produce Nissanka Senadhipathi in Court on that day.
