

If You Want It, Work for It

The Washington Post

May 27, 2003 Tuesday, Final Edition

Copyright 2003 The Washington Post

Section: EDITORIAL; Pg. A18

Length: 106 words

Body

Norma Menjivar said that Maryland Gov. Robert L. Ehrlich Jr. killed her chances of going to college because he vetoed a bill that would have qualified illegal immigrants for in-state tuition ["Immigrant Advocates Say Fight Isn't Over," news story, May 22].

What rubbish.

My sister and I graduated from high school in Severna Park. We worked, saved our money, got scholarships and loans, and graduated from college. My sister has a master's degree.

Instead of demanding entitlements from taxpayers, why can't Ms. Menjivar get a job and work her way through college as millions of U.S. citizens have done?

LINDA H. THOM

Coupeville, Wash.

Classification

Language: ENGLISH

Document-Type: LETTER

Publication-Type: Newspaper

Subject: US STATE IMMIGRATION LAW (88%); TUITION FEES (88%); SCHOLARSHIPS & GRANTS (73%); VETO (73%); ILLEGAL IMMIGRANTS (72%)

Geographic: MARYLAND, USA (73%); UNITED STATES (79%)

If You Want It, Work for It

Load-Date: May 27, 2003

End of Document