ATLANTA

Second suspect in beating in custody

A second man connected to the videotaped beating of a gay 20-year-old Atlanta man turned himself in to police Friday. Dorian Moragne, 19, will be charged with robbery and aggravated assault in the Pittsburgh community attack, according to police. Moragne is one of three men sought in the beating of Brandon White since video footage of the Feb. 4 incident appeared on the Internet. Christopher Cain, 19, was arrested Feb. 11. Police are seeking a third man who has not been identified. MARCUS K. GARNER

Crash victims being flown to Brazil

Bodies of the five Georgians killed in a horrific interstate crash in Florida are being flown to Brazil for burial. A Delta Air Lines spokesman said that caskets containing members of the Carmo family were loaded Thursday on a flight from Atlanta. Hundreds of people turned out Monday in Marietta for a memorial service for the family killed in the Jan. 29 interstate pileup. A total of 11 people died in the crash, including Pastor Jose Carmo Jr.; his wife, Adrianna; and their daughter, Leticia. Also killed were Jose Carmo's brother, Edson, and his brother's girlfriend, Rose. Delta spokesman Tad Hutcheson said the airline offered to fly the bodies free of charge. ALEXIS STEVENS

Underpaid retirees to get pension money

Fulton County has settled a lawsuit over pension benefits for about $17 million, and more than 2,000 retired county workers will be getting money back, Channel 2 Action News reported. The class-action suit claimed Fulton's pension board miscalculated and underpaid benefits for almost 20 years. The settlement will not affect the
