Body

A business owner from India was sentenced yesterday in Federal District Court to 20 months in prison for helping hundreds of immigrants live and work illegally in the United States, prosecutors said. The businessman, Narendra Mandalapa, 36, must also forfeit $5.7 million and two luxury cars, which were proceeds of his crime, and pay a $25,000 fine, prosecutors said. Mr. Mandalapa was the owner and president of Cybersoftec Inc., a business consulting firm based in Edison. He pleaded guilty to immigration fraud on May 5, admitting that he received up to $22,000 from immigrants to file false documents.
