

Georgia: Immigrants Found in Truck

The New York Times

December 23, 2010 Thursday, Late Edition - Final

Copyright 2010 The New York Times Company

Section: Section A; Column 0; National Desk; Pg. 23; NATIONAL BRIEFING SOUTH

Length: 82 words

Byline: By ROBBIE BROWN

Body

---

Six illegal immigrants were discovered in a truck headed for a cargo facility near the Atlanta airport Tuesday night, but they are not suspected of plotting to do any harm, federal authorities said. The men, who were hired to lay carpet at the facility, could not provide proof of legal residency during a routine inspection. They may face deportation, according to the Immigration and Customs Enforcement department. They did not have access to secure areas of the airport, authorities said.

<http://www.nytimes.com>

Classification

---

Language: ENGLISH

Document-Type: Brief

Publication-Type: Newspaper

Subject: IMMIGRATION (92%); SPECIAL INVESTIGATIVE FORCES (90%); FEDERAL INVESTIGATIONS (90%); ILLEGAL IMMIGRANTS (88%); INSPECTIONS (88%); AVIATION ADMINISTRATION (88%); DEPORTATION (73%)

Industry: AVIATION ADMINISTRATION (88%); AIRPORT OPERATION (88%)

Geographic: ATLANTA, GA, USA (77%); GEORGIA, USA (77%)

Load-Date: December 23, 2010