NEW YORK - - All Green Card Lottery applicants that submitted there Green Card Lottery application in October 2015 for the DV-2017 Program has now been selected.

The lucky winners can now check if they have been selected online on <https://www.dvlottery.state.gov/esc/>

If you did not apply you can now apply for the upcoming Green Card Lottery on <https://www.usgreencardoffice.com/apply>

Every year in the US Department of States annual Green Card Lottery (Diversity Visa Program) between 100,000 and 125,000 applications are selected as winners and up to 55,000 Green Cards (Permanent Residency Visas) are issued to new immigrants from all over the world.

The US Green Card Office is the original Green Card lottery service, providing all of the information needed to enter the DIVERSITY VISA LOTTERY. The organization has recently announced the deadline for the upcoming DV-2018 Green Card Lottery is in October 2016 and is encouraging all potential applicants to sign up now.

For most people, winning a Green Card would be a dream come true. The Green Card Lottery is officially called the Diversity Immigrant Visa Lottery, popularly known as the Green Card Lottery. Each year, up to 55,000 Green Cards will be issued to people from all over the world.

Unfortunately, each year, over 60% of the 8-11 million applicants are disqualified because of errors. The reason for this disqualification is that applicants fill out the online application incorrectly or submit a photo that cannot be approved. That is why well over 160,000 people from all over the world have chosen to use the US Green Card Office to submit their application 100% error free.

"Our company was the first in the market to offer these services, going back to 1998," said Michael Silverstone, spokesman for the US Green Card Office. "We have served over 160,000 customers, who saw first-hand how important it was to use a professional service to submit the Green Card Application. If someone were really serious about maximizing his or her chances of winning the Green Card Lottery, we would love to help. Just be sure you meet the deadline for the next lottery in October 2016."

The Green Card Lottery, according to the organization, is officially called the Diversity Immigrant Visa Lottery. While it is free to apply for the lottery through the US Government website, there are many advantages to using the valued-added services of the US Green Card Office. Just a few of the advantages of using the affordable service, not available through the free US government website, include: a step-by-step guide, easy registration, advice and guidance in 20 languages, photo verification before submission, and much, much more. A complete list and comparison between the US Green Card Office's valued-added services and the free services offered by the US government can be viewed here: <http://www.usgreencardoffice.com/green-card-lottery>

The US Green Card Office also runs a very active Facebook page, where clients are free to ask questions and discuss their experiences with well over 75,000 members. Join us now on www.facebook.com/usgreencardoffice

The response to the US Green Card Office services has been very positive over the years. Redona Mema, originally from Albania, recently said, "I am happy to have used the US Green Card Office to submit my application in 2015, and I will again this year. My friend applied a few years ago without using this service and was rejected. At least I know my chances are really the best they can be, all other things considered. I'm confident that I will be a lucky Green Card winner this year, so I can start a new life in United States. Five stars for the US Green Card Office."
