Clayton County police today were searching for a Jonesboro man who allegedly abducted his girlfriend and her son Monday night. Capt. Doug Jewett said warrants for kidnapping and aggravated assault were issued for Marcus Boddie, 32, in the abduction of Patria Domineck, 30, and 2-year-old Ashunti Adams. Jewett said Vivian Horton, Domineck's mother, told police the suspect abducted her daughter and Ashunti from Horton's apartment on Riverdale Road, pushing Domineck and the child into his gray Dodge Stratus. "When Horton ran outside to help, the suspect pointed the handgun at her and threatened to kill her," Jewett added. Shortly after 2 a.m. Horton received a phone call from Domineck "from an unknown location that she and the child were not hurt, but that the suspect had shot himself in the leg," Jewett said.
