Body

Two men, one a minister, have been charged with stealing more than $260,000 from illegal immigrants by telling the immigrants that they could get them green cards, said Robert T. Johnson, the Bronx district attorney, left.

The men, the Rev. Errol O'Connor, 48, of the Bronx, and Emanuel Felder, 33, of Uniondale, N.Y., were arrested on Tuesday and face grand larceny and other charges. Prosecutors say that Mr. O'Connor, of the Pentecostal Deliverance Ministries in the Bronx, falsely claimed in radio commercials that he could obtain resident alien status for immigrants for a fee, which averaged about $4,000.
