BELL--Steven, The Law Firm of Fragomen, Del Rey, Bernsen & Loewy, LLP mourns the death of its long time friend and colleague Steven C. Bell, November 14, 2006, at age 55. Steve was an attorney and prolific writer and speaker on US Immigration issues. He was co author, with Austin T. Fragomen, Jr, of numerous highly regarded publications in the field, including the Immigration Procedures Handbook, the H-1B Handbook, Immigration Law and Business, and the Labor Certification Handbook (Thomson West). He was a long time member of the American Immigration Lawyers Association, and a graduate of New York University Law School and the University of Pennsylvania. Early in his career, he was an associate with the firm, before turning to writing full time. Steve was also involved in the cause of gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender rights. He most recently served as a dedicated volunteer at the Ali Forney Center, a nonprofit agency providing housing, outreach, medical and psychological care, and other services to homeless gay and lesbian youth. The firm sends its condolences to Steve's sister and brother in law, Cynthia and Russell Thompson, and nieces Amy and Alyssa.
