Three federal immigration agents have been indicted in Houston for their roles in a New Braunfels raid that led to the death of a 47-year-old Mexican. The three -- Carlos Reyna, Richard Henry Gonzales and Louis Rey Gomez -- are accused of violating Serafin Olvera-Carrera's civil rights after a beating left him paralyzed. Mr. Olvera-Carrera died about a year after the March 25, 2001, raid, in which he suffered a broken neck and was doused with pepper spray.
