

Texas: Arrests After Standoff Over Immigrants

The New York Times

June 23, 2009 Tuesday, Late Edition - Final

Copyright 2009 The New York Times Company

Section: Section A; Column 0; National Desk; Pg. 17; NATIONAL BRIEFING SOUTHWEST

Length: 50 words

Byline: By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Body

Armed men who allegedly held 12 suspected illegal immigrants in a Brownsville house for several days while trying to get money from their relatives were arrested after a standoff with the police. Ten men from Mexico and two women from El Salvador were turned over to Border Patrol agents for processing.

<http://www.nytimes.com>

Classification

Language: ENGLISH

Document-Type: Brief

Publication-Type: Newspaper

Subject: ARRESTS (91%); IMMIGRATION (90%); ILLEGAL IMMIGRANTS (90%); LAW ENFORCEMENT (88%); TERRITORIAL & NATIONAL BORDERS (86%); BORDER CONTROL (86%)

Geographic: TEXAS, USA (77%)

Load-Date: June 23, 2009