WASHINGTON: The Senate Judiciary Committee's confirmation hearing on St. LouisCounty Executive Gene McNary will be held on Oct. 3, the committee announced Wednesday. McNary has been nominated by President George Bush to head the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

The hearing originally had been scheduled for next Monday. It was postponed after Sen. Paul Simon, D-Ill., cited a scheduling conflict and officials of various civil rights groups asked for more time to look into McNary's qualifications. Some of the groups also had asked to testify at the hearing. But Jerry Tinker, staff director of the panel's subcommittee on immigration, said the schedule would not allow time for that. Tinker said the groups could submit written testimony for the record if they wished. Post-Dispatch Washington Bureau
