Body

Federal law enforcement officials have seized more than 22,000 counterfeit immigration cards and arrested five people who allegedly produced and sold the documents in the nation's capital.

Federal officials say the bust will make it significantly harder for undocumented workers in the Washington area to obtain fake "green cards." Arrested were: Omar Hernandez-Garcia, 34, Jose Antonio Guzman-Sanchez, 32, and Arturo Flores-Flores, 18, all of Washington; and Juan Jose Penaloza-Perez, 25, and Mario Martinez-Gonzalez, 32, both of Reading, Pa. All are illegal immigrants from Mexico and could face deportation after they are tried.
